

4th International F.O.T.T.[®] Symposium

Learning in F.O.T.T.[®]

10th of June 2022 | 9.30 am - 3.30 pm BST | 10.30 - 16.30 CEST | via Zoom

BST	CEST
09.30 - 09.45	10.30 - 10.45	Instruction for the online meeting by Rikke Dunne Welcome by FOrmaTT and Special Interest Group (Förderverein F.O.T.T. e.V.)
09.45 - 10.15	10.45 - 11.15	F.O.T.T. - Past, present and future Kay Coombes interviewed by Annette Kjærsgaard
10.15 - 10.35	11.15 - 11.35	Chat and break
10.35 - 11.00	11.35 - 12.00	Tongue movements for activity and participation: Planning the treatment using the F.O.T.T. algorithm Doris Müller and Daniela Jakobsen
11.00 - 11.25	12.00 - 12.25	Clinical reasoning - increases efficient swallowing! Barbara Augustin and Brit Steen Langhorn
11.25 - 12.15	12.25 - 13.15	Chat and lunch break
12.15 - 12.45	13.15 - 13.45	Poster session 1. Scoping review to identify and map non-pharmacological, non-surgical treatments for dysphagia following moderate to severe acquired brain injury Signe Janum Eskildsen 2. Physiotherapy-related late onset clinical and grey matter plasticity changes in a patient with dysphagia due to longstanding pseudobulbar palsy – a longitudinal case study Karin Gampp Lehmann 3. A validation study of the F.O.T.T. Swallowing Assessment of Saliva Annette Kjærsgaard
12.45 - 13.05	13.45 - 14.05	Chat and break
13.05 - 13.30	14.05 - 14.30	F.O.T.T. tracheostomy tube management - return to physiology and participation Annett Pötzsch, Nadanja Jeremic, Ricki Nusser-Müller-Busch
13.30 - 13.50	14.30 - 14.50	Chat and break
13.50 - 14.15	14.50 - 15.15	FEES meets F.O.T.T. - strict protocol or hypothesis-driven approach? Malte Jädicke
14.15 - 14.40	15.15 - 15.40	F.O.T.T. topic of the month: The challenges of creating a learning environment, in a busy clinical setting Daniela Jakobsen
14.40 - 14.50	15.40 - 15.50	Chat
14.50 - 15.30	15.50 - 16.30	How to move on? Good bye